

Bivalve Bash

G D G D E A D
Late last night in the full moonlight all the invertebrates give a spree

G D G D E A
They put out a sign saying dancing at nine and all the fresh water's free.

G D G D E A D
There were crabs and clams, and worms and snails. It was the biggest crowd you ever seen.

E
When spiny lump sucker struck up his number,

E A
You should-a heard the bivalves scream.

B
With the algae doin' the detritus flop.

E
A jelly shook the shimmy and she could not stop.

A
A polychaete kicked up all his feet

D
As the amphipods jumped on the eelgrass heap.

B
A great blue heron, in jubilee,

E
Swingin' arm in arm with an anemone

G E D B
And old man eagle said it must be illegal

E A D B
Down at the Bivalve Bash, This morning.
