

Padilla Bay Food Chain Song
(A call and response song)

D

(Leader) Oh, Padilla is a bay.
(Response) Oh, Padilla is a bay.

D

(Leader) And it is an estuary.
(Response) And it is an estuary.

D

(Leader) 'Bout the prettiest estuary.
(Response) 'Bout the prettiest estuary.

D                      A

(Leader) That you ever did see.
(Response) That you ever did see.

D

(All) Oh, Padilla is a bay,
D
And it is an estuary,
          D        A        D        G
And the eelgrass grows all around, all around.
          D        A        D
And the eelgrass grows all around.

Now in that bay (repeat)
There was an eagle. (Repeat)
'Bout the prettiest little eagle (repeat)
That you ever did see (repeat)

(All) Oh, the eagle in the bay,
And the bay's an estuary,
And the eelgrass grows all around, all around.
And the eelgrass grows all around.

Keep adding one more link to the chain each verse until this last verse:

(All) Oh, detritus in the copepod,
And the copepod in the crab,
And the crab in the duck,
And the duck in the eagle,
And the eagle in the bay,
And the bay's an estuary,
And the eelgrass grows all around and around,
And the eelgrass grows all around.
